The Rev. John H. Hampsch, C.M.F., ordained as a Catholic priest in 1952, is a member of the Claretian Missionaries. Listed in Who's Who in Religion in America, he has served as parish priest, seminary professor and rector, college professor, lecturer, magazine writer, newspaper columnist, editor, retreat master, hospital chaplain, prison chaplain, campus chaplain, director of suicide prevention programs and Cursillo director. He earned degrees in philosophy from Loyola-Marymount University in Los Angeles and from Notre Dame University, with postgraduate work at the University of Southern California and the Dominican House of Studies in River Forest, Illinois, in ascetical and mystical theology. Widely traveled in 57 countries and in all 50 United States, Father Hampsch calls himself an "itinerant preacher-teacher," with special emphasis on teaching and healing services. In addition to his personal appearances, his primary interest is in bringing Jesus to the hearts of people through the mass media with his two TV series, "Send Forth Your Spirit" and "Glad You Asked", and by his frequent role as a TV and radio panelist. His poetry and articles have been published in popular magazines. He has had academic writings published in such scientific periodicals as the Journal of Neuropsychiatry.

Father Hampsch is an officer in the Los Angeles Archdiocesan Communication Association, a psychological consultant to the National Broadcasting Company, a member of the Association of Christian Therapists, past president of the Catholic Philosophical Association. Rev. Christopher J. Crotty C.P.M. was born in 1967 and is a native of San Francisco, California. He attended Kolbe Academy, which was co-founded by his parents, Francis and Margaret Crotty. Fr. Crotty was the first high school graduate of the program. In 1986 Fr. Crotty began service in the United States Navy. He served with distinction in the medical corps eventually attending the anesthesia technologist program. Fr. Crotty served as an anesthesia technologist at Balboa Naval Hospital for four years. Having completed military service Fr. Crotty went on to work as a civilian anesthesia technologist at Good Samaritan Hospital in San Jose California.

In 1995 Fr. Crotty became a member of the Congregation of the Fathers of Mercy. In 1996 Fr. Crotty began studies in philosophy and in theology at Holy Apostles Seminary in Cromwell, Connecticut. On May 31st, 2001 Fr. Crotty was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Michael Sheridan in Russellville Kentucky. Following ordination Fr. Crotty served as the associate pastor at St. Martin of Tours in downtown Louisville Kentucky. For the past several years Fr. Crotty has promulgated the rich teachings on the Holy Spirit and healing on missions, retreats and conferences. He also teaches nationwide on radio and other media resources. Prison work has been an outreach for some years as well. Fr. Crotty is a member and supports the work of, "The Association of Christian Therapists." His work has also supported The Serra Club, Magnificat (women's prayer groups), The Knights of Columbus, The Ancient Order of Hibernians, and The National Association of Private Catholic Institutes and Schools. Michael Crotty – A testimony of hope and miracles. Michael went from being an altar boy and soprano in the San Francisco Boys Chorus to becoming a cocaine & alcohol addict. At 21, he entered a secular recovery center. Seven years and seven rehabs later, he found the answer in the Holy Eucharist. Michael spent 3 ½ years in the Comunita Cenacolo www.hopereborn.org. Through prayer, daily Eucharistic Adoration, three daily Rosaries, daily Divine Mercy Chaplet, and Confession, Michael found healing. Studying under an icon master at the Comunita Cenacolo, he is now an Iconographer. This testimony will give you hope for that addict for whom you pray.
